

Outcome of the US NRC Waste Confidence Decision Rulemaking on Spent/Used Fuel

Larry W. Camper, USNRC

And

Lisa Edwards, EPRI

March 18, 2015

Waste Management Symposia

Phoenix, AZ

Opening Remarks

- * 2012 –U.S. Court of Appeals vacated and remanded to the Commission the 2010 update to the Waste Confidence Decision and Rule.
- * Commission directed staff to complete a new rule and decision supported by a generic environmental impact statement by Fall 2014
- * US NRC rulemaking to address waste confidence
 - * Environmental Impact Statement
 - * Public Outreach
- * Updates the NRC position on long term storage of spent/used nuclear fuel
- * Session presentations on industry, regulator, and stakeholder perspectives

Panelists

- Keith McConnell – Special Assistant to the Office Director, Office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards, USNRC
- Carrie Safford – Acting Assistant General Counsel, High-Level Waste, Fuel Cycle and Nuclear Security, USNRC
- Francis “Chip” Cameron– Executive Consultant, Zero Gravity
- Stefan Anton – Vice President of Engineering, Holtec International
- Jonathan Rund – Assistant General Counsel, NEI
- Geoffrey H. Fettus – Senior Project Attorney, Nuclear Programs, NRDC